Views mean the hook worked

They don't mean the right person was watching.

Reach and revenue are two different problems.

Problem 1: wrong audience

The video answers a question your buyer never asks.

- Trends attract people who like trends
- Your buyer has a specific problem

Problem 2: no next step

The video ends and the viewer has nothing to do.

- No question to answer
- No word to comment
- No reason to visit your profile

Problem 3: the profile doesn’t close

People who click through can't tell what you help with in 3 seconds.

Your profile is where the sale starts.

Problem 4: one video, no trust

Nobody hires from one video.

They hire after the tenth one where you clearly understood their problem.

The fix is boring

- Pick one problem your buyer has
- Make every video about a piece of it
- End with one small action
