Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

Before you hit record

A 2-minute checklist

Swipe →

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

01/08

"I'll fix it in post"

The most expensive sentence in video.

Two minutes of setup saves an hour of editing.

Short-form video for coaches and consultants

Swipe →

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

02/08

1. Light in front of you

A window facing you beats any expensive lamp.

Never sit with the window behind you.

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

03/08

2. Phone at eye level

Looking down at the camera makes everyone look less confident.

Stack books if you need to.

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

3. Look at the lens

Not at your face on the screen.

It feels strange. On video it reads as eye contact.

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

05/08

4. Quiet room, close mic

People forgive average video.

They don't forgive bad audio.

Swipe →

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

06/08

5. Say the first line twice

Different energy each time.

Your editor picks the better one.

Swipe →

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

07/08

6. One idea per take

If you go off topic, stop and restart.

Shorter takes are easier to cut.

Swipe →

Diab labs. Hicham Elkhatir

08/08

Tape this next to your camera.

Save this post so you have it next time you record.

Follow for more.

Short-form video for coaches and consultants

Send me a DM